Legal basis for processing

The legal basis is your consent pursuant to Art. 9 (2) a) DS-GVO in conjunction with the Ordinance on the Right to Testing in Relation to Direct Pathogen Detection of the Coronavirus SARS-CoV-2 (Coronavirus Test Ordinance - TestV) of 08 March 2021. Further processing may result in individual cases from associated legal and contractual obligations.

Recipients of your data Your data will only be processed by employees who are responsible for the relevant task fulfillment and are bound to confidentiality. Data will only be passed on to third parties if this is required by legal obligations, for example in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of the Infection Protection Act (IfSG) to the relevant authorities.

Storage period of the data

We retain your declaration of consent and the documentation of the tests for purposes of record keeping for as long as is necessary to prove correct accounting of the tests in the testing center, presumably until December 31, 2024.

The samples will be destroyed and disposed of after they have been performed and the results have been determined.

Obligation to provide the data

With your consent for testing, you must provide your data. In case of a positive test result, we are obliged according to § 8 i.V.m. § 7 IfSG we are obliged to notify the competent authority by name. Without this data, we cannot perform a test.
